

Berklee

Friday, March 29, 2024

Dear [REDACTED]

On behalf of the President and the Board of Trustees, I am delighted to announce your acceptance to Berklee College of Music as a candidate for the Boston campus Bachelor of Music Degree, September 2024 semester.

Acceptance of this opportunity brings with it access to an unmatched network of students and alumni who are shaping the future of the music industry. A place where innovation is the norm and we embrace the unexpected, powered by a potent confluence of global creativity. In you, we have identified the artistic and creative essence at the heart of Berklee, and we are excited for what you will bring to our community.

To review whether you have received scholarship or financial aid, please visit NetPartner. Your Student ID is [REDACTED].

When you join Berklee, you will not just become a member of our future graduating class—you will also engage with the broader Berklee biosphere of Berklee NYC, Berklee Valencia, Boston Conservatory at Berklee, Berklee Global Partners, Berklee City Music, Berklee Online, and more.

Here you will find a pioneering spirit and boundless thirst for knowledge; a willingness to explore new musical horizons; an openness to the creativity around you; passion and focus; a culture of mutual respect and inclusion; and the highest professional standard in your work. These are the qualities at the core of Berklee's success. They resonate with our community and are mirrored in our creative diversity.

We anticipate that you will rise to meet your potential and we look forward to welcoming you to Berklee.

Yours in music,

Damien S. Bracken
Dean of Admissions
Berklee College of Music